Phil - Our funds, particularly for registration fees, are quite limited this year. Per our ARE funding protocol, I will wait for affirmation from Patty and Michael that they support this training for you and we can go from there. Thanks

I would like to attend this conference on mine tailings. Most of the questions I have about Pebble relate to tailings. I have been enquiring of various tailings experts about the state of the art. It appears that not much has changed in the last ten years, but this conference should bring me up to date.

The registration fee is $895, flight is about $700 and lodging will be about $550. For total of about $2150 + per diem.
